LOCAL MEETING.

F. L. Wagner, Editor Local Correspondence.
All communications should be addressed to THE VIRGINIA CITIZEN, IRVINGTON, VA.

Who flung that last volley at us?
Alex. Leland, of Carrolton, was here Sunday.

SHELLS—50,000 bushels shells for sale at very low price. A. BOUTH & CO., 1100 N. 1st St., Baltimore, Md.

Will Mills, of Falmouth, is here a few days this week.

Messrs. Lee and Wagner will attend Lancaster court Monday in the interests of the CITIZEN.

Cherry Glycine, the new up-to-date and great specific for coughs, to use it once means always. He convinced and try it.

Mr. and Mrs. Cy Cox left for Baltimore this week, the latter to receive hospital attention.

Geo. W. Meekins and Duffie Beagle, of Fisherman, were visiting R. P. Meekins Saturday and Sunday.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cough, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

Messrs. Wagner and Burke, of the CITIZEN force, have given way to the fact and are down with the grip.

Irvington, too, must be in the fashion and take up the fad of lagrippe. It has the better part of our populace within its grasp.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. R. W. Gray's signature is on each box. 25c.

Mrs. J. Wm. Chowning, of Carrollton, was here this week at the bedside of her son, Vivian, who is sick at the home of Mrs. Chowning's sister, Mrs. W. T. Jones.

Telegraph Tooth-Ache Drops. Cures tooth-ache by bottled electricity, at once. Grand success. Only 10c. Jas. Bailey & Son, Baltimore, Md.

Visitors seen here recently: W. E. Currell, J. M. Gannon, Miss Bernice Rowe, Alvin D. James, Mrs. Jno. Fettsch, Miss Kate Guenther, Jno. Hoffman, Otis Davenport.

Flimore Timby, the photographer, has just recovered from a severe attack of grip and will be at his photograph gallery in White Stone every day for the next two weeks.

Little steamer Owen Dillard, notwithstanding the heavy wind this week, enabled to make her regular trips to Urbana, in consequence of which we have received our daily papers regularly.

The old Southern Hotel, the Matthe House, Baltimore, was never in better luck to entertain guests. It is here that all Virginians congregate when visiting the Monument City.

We notice from the Watchman that there is quite a contention as to when the heavy sheet of 1899 began. From the Grizzards' diary we find that the sheet began on the night of February 7th, 1899.

When you want a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and pleasant in effect, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. Every box guaranteed. For sale by T. J. Willing & Co., Irvington, Geo. W. Sanders, White Stone, W. H. Harding & Bro., Weems.

A faithful few braved the weather and defied the grip, and met at the home of Mrs. Geo. St. C. Smith on Tuesday evening. It was the monthly meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society—that exclusively women's meeting.

Stop that Pain. By going to the old Drug Stand and getting what is needed. Also cures for coughs, colds, general debility, weakness, chills, dyspepsia, piles, sore, neuralgia and kidney and bladder troubles. We have Lydia E. Pinkham's, Dr. and Dr. Pierce's medicines and Swamp Root as specialties, so come and be healed. T. J. HAYDON & SON, Irvington, Va.

Mrs. Flora Irving met with a painful accident this week. In brushing down the mantel-piece she gathered it in her hand. In it was a quantity of powder, which she did not recognize as such. In putting it in the fire the explosion burned her hand and wrist badly.

How to Cure the Grip. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. The remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really the only serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. For sale by T. J. Willing & Co., Irvington; Geo. W. Sanders, White Stone; W. H. Harding & Bro., Weems.

H. H. Hale, popular drummer and business man, paid a flying trip to Irvington last week.

KILMARNOCK.

Mrs. J. B. Cralle and daughter, Miss Lillian, who have been quite sick, are improving.

Our new drug store has opened.

The case against Jas. Stokes, of the "Club," for violating the local option laws, was called Wednesday before Justice Chase and Chilton. Case was dismissed, as no witnesses appeared against the defendant.

T. O. Smith is gathering a nice lot of ice from Norris' pond.

Entertainment here to-night (Friday).

WEEMS—BOATS CAPSIZE.

On Monday afternoon just as the heavy wind swept down the Hapshannock two boats hailed from the Great Wicomico capsize off River View. The smaller boat was dismasted while the stern of the other sank. Capt. Bayton, of steamer Owen Dillard, saw five colored men clinging to the bow of the large vessel and went to their rescue. Later on efforts were made to raise the boat but so far have been unsuccessful. The captain of one of the vessels was named Campbell.

Messrs. Alpha Walker, W. H. Harding and James Brown are on the sick list.

Arthur Lee, who has had charge of Indian farm for sometime, has left to assume charge of the farm of Dr. W. M. Kirk at White Stone.

ANTI-RAPP.

T. A. Treake and J. A. Robertson are shaking a good many oysters.

The fishermen are busy getting ready to drive stakes.

Miss Bessie Beane, of Upper Lancaster, paid Mrs. J. A. Robertson a short visit last week.

Mrs. A. L. Treake has returned from Baltimore, where she has been to the hospital for treatment.

Walter James has returned home after a lengthy stay in New York.

Vivian Chowning and Calvin Brewington, both of Irvington, were the guests of Joseph Robertson last week.

H. E. Robertson's little son, Willie, we are glad to say is walking around.

NEW YEAR.

MOLUSK.

The people of Bethel church were much pleased to have Brother Garner, of Whitehall, preach for them on last Sunday. The treat was unexpected.

Bethel church held her Annual Church Conference last Monday. Rev. R. E. Bentley in charge. Only one death was reported in the church membership for the conference year.

L. D. Steneham has two children sick with malaria.

Mr. and Mrs. Spedden, of Baltimore, are visiting the ladies' relatives near here.

Mrs. Ann Oliver continues quite unwell at the home of her nephew, E. S. Doherty.

Rev. R. E. Bentley spent Sunday night last at the home of J. R. Taylor.

L. O. Cox spent Saturday and Sunday last with his daughter, Mrs. "Ned" Thomas, at Wheaton.

About fifteen couples went down to "D. O. C."s" one night last week and I think they had a splendid time.

This neighborhood was much shocked to hear of the death of "Faz" Harding, of Whitehall, on last Saturday.

Molusk is still holding her own in the face of Billy and Hanna.

ST. ANDREW.

FISHERMAN.

Mrs. J. H. Davis is sick at this writing, as is also Mrs. Emily Meekins, Mrs. Cronall, and Mrs. Joe Shelton.

Fishermen are now busy driving stakes and tarring and mending nets.

Ald Society met at Mrs. Wm. G. Foxwell's recently and a large attendance was present.

They do say that at a certain taffy stew in our vicinity, not many moons ago, a prowling cur developed a great taste for the sweets when placed out to cool.

We will have a daily mail from White Stone to Fisherman.

Roads are in a terrible condition. A little work on them would do lots of good.

Miss Georgia Meekins and brother, Ernest, were visiting G. W. Meekins and friends here last week.

A. A. Sanders and B. A. Crossdale have recently returned from Cambridge, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Ingram entertained quite a number of friends on Tuesday evening. The time was spent in games, music and singing. All retired to their homes about 12 o'clock, feeling that they have passed a most enjoyable evening.

Capt. Jim Davis and son, Russell, visited here this week.

A private school here, taught by Mrs. A. B. Alford, will celebrate Washington's birthday in the Old Fellow's Hall, Friday night, February 22nd, consisting of dialogues, tableaux and marches. Music by Anti-Rapp string band. A small admission will be charged to pay expenses. Refreshments will be served. Should the weather be inclement, the next night.

JACK.

WHITE STONE.

Mrs. Virginia E. Hill, formerly of near here, died Saturday morning last, aged 63 years, at Battery Park, Isle of Wight.

The funeral was preached by Rev. Samuel Clopton at the Battery Park Baptist church, he remains being interred in the Southfield City Cemetery. The deceased leaves five children to mourn their loss.

Richmond County.

DOWNINGS.

Three blacksmith shops, two stores and a barber shop now comprise our village.

Much sickness is prevalent in this section at present.

Charles W. Barneke has gone into the lumber business again. He is now getting piling off the farm of Robert Beverley, in Essex county, near Dunnville.

Miss Mary Beale, of Kinsale, is teaching primary at the school here. She has fifteen scholars enrolled, and is quite popular among our people.

On account of the scarcity of provender some are getting cold of their horses.

Our popular friend, Mr. J. A. Davis, gave a party Friday night in honor of his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Amos, of Reedsburg, N. C. Our plucky little merchant, who wouldn't indulge in tripping the light fantastic, headed a game of 45 while the others danced 'til a late hour, when a sumptuous repast, consisting of all the delicacies of the season, was served. After a few more rounds of gaily the company took leave of their hospitable host and hostess, expressing themselves as wonderfully pleased. One of the sports added some enjoyment to the occasion by suddenly elevating his very slippery slippers and trying to cut the pigeon wing on the small of his back. He succeeded admirably.

Our P. M. J. S. Chowling, is thinning out hawks with steel traps on poles. All of us old hen huzzies ought to follow suit.

New postoffice has been established at Moran on the York and Annapolis roads. Chas. P. Palmer as postmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. James Amos returned to their home in Reedsburg, N. C., Tuesday, being accompanied by the lady's little Guts.

Pneumonia Can be Prevented.

This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. That remedy was extensively used during the epidemic of La Grippe of the past few years, and not a single case has ever been reported that did not recover.

William Bowen has a fine horse that was sick and refused to eat for 21 days. It then began eating heartily. Mr. Bowen examined the feed box and found something like a tooth, 2 inches long and very sharp, at one end which seemed to have grown into the flesh about a 1/2 of an inch. The horse has been improving ever since.

On Wednesday last week there was a big quilting and wood chopping at F. M. Hutchinson's. One hundred and twenty ladies and gentlemen were present. Three quilts were quilted and a large quantity of wood cut.

R. L. Jones has made an addition to his farm by purchasing fifteen acres of land of Mrs. R. H. Clarke. J. E. Carter is operating a shingle saw on Mrs. A. M. Nash's farm.

Miss Florence Anderson, of Essex county, was a welcome guest at the home of Mrs. A. M. Nash last week. Miss Florence returned to her home Sunday.
